

FUN MAKERS AT THEIR BEST TO-DAY.

"The Girl from Paris" to Give Her Grand Benefit
at the Herald Square.

Go and Laugh and the Christmas Fire Sufferers Will Laugh with You.

Josephine Hall Will Send a Clarion Note Down Broadway and Out to Harlem.

"EXCELSIOR" IS HER VOCAL MOTTO.

Manager Rice Has Written a New Song.
Mr. Evans Prophesies a Big Addition to the Journal's Relief Fund.

"The Girl from Paris" has everything in readiness to dazzle the packed house that is assured at the Herald Square Theatre this afternoon for the Journal's Fire Sufferers' Benefit.

From the very entrance of the theatre to the top of the scene painter's bridge the entire staff of proprietors, managers, employes and skilled artisans have laid themselves out to make to-day's presentation of "The Girl from Paris" the most notable and laughable in its history in America.

The best prospect of success is the deep interest taken in the benefit by the cast.

become part of their early day education.
While I am a thorough New Yorker by this time, Max, I am essentially Western in my general tendencies, and a charity benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you aren't the only pebble on the elongated and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New Yorkers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow afternoon."

Rice Has a New Song.
At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with the information that he had written a new song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times yesterday afternoon, and declares it has just the right sort of ring to it for a state occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yesterday to touching up the scenery, and brightening up the spots that had been blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lipman, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fusillade of roses thrown from the boxes by an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has retouched out all the blemish, and if the public insists upon marring the scenery again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw often.

The following letters from people made destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yesterday to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yester-
day to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yester-
day to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yester-
day to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yester-
day to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yesterday to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

At this juncture Mr. Rice dropped in with
the information that he had written a new
song for Charles Dickson to sing at the performance. It is entitled "Just for a Kiss" and is a characteristic Rice production. Dickson rehearsed it several times
yesterday afternoon, and declares it has
just the right sort of ring to it for a state
occasion.

Mr. Frank Dodge, who is at the head of
the scene painting department of the Herald Square, devoted the best part of yesterday to touching up the scenery, and
brightening up the spots that had been
blurred by bouquets thrown at Clara Lip-
man, who plays the lead in the comedy.
He explained to a Journal man how an entire landscape could be spoiled by a fu-
sillade of roses thrown from the boxes by
an ardent hand. However, Mr. Dodge has
retouched out all the blemish, and if the
public insists upon marring the scenery
again this afternoon, the management will have to stand it. Come early and throw
often.

The following letters from people made
destitute by the fire, but who have since

become part of their early day education.

While I am a thorough New Yorker by this
time, Max, I am essentially Western in
my general tendencies, and a charity
benefit just tickles me to death."

"Well, say, Billy," answered Max, as he
tapped Mann vigorously on the chest, "you
aren't the only pebble on the elongated
and strip. I am a little bit on the charity boulevard myself. If you think New York-
ers are slow in the gentle art of brotherly
love, just watch 'em accumulate to-morrow
afternoon."

FOUR NOON WEDDINGS.

Miss Eliza Watson Married to Her Cousin, of Dublin—Pretty Lorillard-Screenen Ceremony.

Miss Eliza Watson and her cousin, G. W.
Wesley Watson, of Dublin, Ireland, were married at 1230 o'clock yesterday, at the residence of Mrs. William H. Tallier, sister of the bride, No. 14 East Seventy-second street. Lander's orchestra was stationed in the wide hall, and screened with exotics. In the front drawing room, an aisle was arranged with white satin ribbons, and in the bow window were flowers.

Rev. William M. Grosvenor, rector of the Church of the Incarnation, performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Francis A. Watson. She wore a white satin gown trimmed with point lace, and diamond ornaments. There were no bridesmaids or ushers. Charles Watson, the bridegroom's brother, attended as best man.

The bride received many splendid gifts.
That of the bridegroom was a diamond and pearl necklace, with sapphire pendant.
From her brothers, Francis A. Watson, and Henry R. C. Watson, she received jewels and a big silver punch bowl. Mr. and Mrs.
G. W. Wesley Watson will sail next Saturday for Europe. They will pass the winter at the Riviera, and early in April take possession of their London residence.

Lorillard-Screenen
Miss Elizabeth Screenen and Ernest Lorillard, youngest son of Jacob Lorillard, and were married yesterday at noon at the Church of the Holy Communion at Twentieth street and Sixth avenue. Rev. Henry Mottel, rector of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father, John H. Screenen, with whom she entered. She wore a rich white satin gown, with flounces of point lace. The point lace veil a family heirloom, was secured with diamond ornaments, the bridegroom's gift. Miss Margaret, of Charleston, S. C., a cousin, attended her as maid of honor. Miss Cornelia Van Kenes-ler Deland and Miss Cornelia L. Crooke were the bridesmaids. They wore costumes of yellow brocade with lace and small bouquets to correspond, trimmed with clustered violets. Charles K. Beckman assisted as best man, and John H. Hammond, G. De Lancy Coster, William B.
Potts and Robert J. Turnbull, a nephew of the bride, were the ushers.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Screenen, No. 40 West Thirty-ninth street. Not more than 150 guests partook of the bridal breakfast served by Pinner.

Dodge-Vernon.
Miss Grace Vernon and Norman White Dodge, son of the late William E. Dodge, were married yesterday at noon in the Berk Church, at Fifth avenue and Thirty-seventh street. The Rev. Henry Van Dyck, the pastor, performed the ceremony. The bride was arrayed in white satin, with point lace, tulle, orange blossoms and diamond ornaments. Prof. Robert W. Hall attended the bride as best man. Dr.
Vernon, a brother of the bride, and Guy Phelps Dodge were ushers.

A bridal breakfast followed the church ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Harwood Vernon, No. 70 West Forty-sixth street. The bridegroom, having recently lost a brother, Arthur M. Dodge, the wedding was very quietly celebrated. This is the third marriage of Mr. Dodge. His first wife was Miss Grace Gillette, a sister of Howard Gillette, and the second Miss Hartley, daughter of Marcellus Hartley, of No. 232 Madison avenue.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bartholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

De Lano-Schert.
Miss Schert, of No. 34 West Thirty-
eighth street, and William L. De Lano
were quietly married yesterday at St. Bar-
tholomew's Church. The Rev. David H.
Greer performed the ceremony at 11:30
o'clock. The bride was arrayed in travelling costume, and the couple started on
their bridal tour from the church.

GIRL GRADUATES HERE'S YOUR CHANCE.

Public School Department in Serious Straits for New Teachers.

Not Enough Eligible Applicants to Fill an Unusual Demand.

Superintendent Jasper Puts the Recent Transfers in the Light of a General Promotion.

TEACHERS MAKE FEW COMPLAINTS.

Secretary Hunt, of the Board of Superintendents, Who Has Discussed the New Move with Many of the Principals, Says There is General Satisfaction.